

WILSON PROMISED RUMANIA & SERBIA MILITARY AID

PEACE CONFERENCE PROCEED-INGS IN POSSESSION OF NEW YORK TRIBUNE

QUOTE PRESIDENT AS GIVING
GUARANTY AS CHARGED BY SENATOR SPENCER

New York, Oct. 8.—The New York Tribune yesterday said: A copy in French of the official records of the secret session of the peace conference on May 31, 1919, which gives the text of a statement by President Wilson, which has been called into controversy by Senator Seiden F. Spencer's assertion that the president had promised aid to Rumania and Serbia, has come into the possession of The Tribune. Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the president, said that Mr. Wilson had no stenographic record of the session, and as far as the president knows, none was in this country.

The president's statement, which was interpreted by Senator Spencer as promising aid to the Europeans whom the president was addressing, is printed on page 23, of the official abstract of the official French minutes.

Wilson's Promise on Page 23

The president's words were brought out by Bratiano, who, after complaining that the Rumanian delegation had not had even 24 hours to examine the text of the treaty, handed to them the previous evening, submitted a series of documents marked Annexes A, B, C and D, explaining Rumania's attitude toward the stipulated guaranties of minor rights and the proposed treaty in general. Annex B summarized Rumania's objections to the clauses concerning the treatment of national minorities. The document said in part:

"Rumania has assured complete equality of the rights of political and economic liberty to all her citizens without distinction as to their race or religion. In a general sense Rumania is prepared to accept in this matter all dispositions whose validity all the states adhering to the League of Nations will act for their respective territories. On no other terms can Rumania admit, in any case whatsoever, intervention by foreign governments into the administration of her domestic laws."

President Wilson spoke in English. The minutes were kept in both English and French. The president's reply, re-translated from the official French text into English, reads in part:

"The Allied and Associated Powers will guarantee the maintenance of conditions upon which we shall agree, conditions as just as possible. It will be they who will have to assume the obligation and the burden. It is upon them that the responsibility will primarily rest, just as by force of circumstances, they have made the greatest effort during the war, and it must not be forgotten that it is force which is the ultimate guaranty of public peace."

"If you want that the principal Allied and Associated Powers should guarantee the very existence of your states, is it unreasonable that they should be satisfied as to the conditions which they adjudge as indispensable for eliminating future causes of war."

"How could the government of the United States face congress and the American people and pretend that it had assisted in assuring the peace of the world if it believed that the settlement arrived at contains unstable and dangerous elements?"

Wilson Promised U. S. Forces

"If the world finds itself troubled anew, if the conditions which we all regard as fundamental, are again drawn into question, the guaranty which is given to you will mean that the United States will send to this side of the ocean their army and their navy. Is it surprising in these conditions that they should want to repel any settlement of the diverse problem that will not seem to them entirely satisfactory?"

"I hope that we shall reach—that is our goal—a cordial and voluntary cooperation on the only possible basis. What this basis is one must express in this fashion: It is by the side which has the power that the maintenance of world peace will be insured. It is on the side which has the power that the supreme guaranty of this peace will dwell."

CORONER'S INQUEST INTO DENTON'S DEATH BEING HELD TODAY

Los Angeles, Oct. 9.—Whether Mrs. H. C. Peete, of Denver, will be exonerated of any alleged connection with the mysterious murder of Jacob C. Denton, Los Angeles mine broker, may be decided in a coroner's inquest into Denton's death today.

Judge C. N. Hilton's announcement followed one from Deputy District Attorney W. C. Doan that he would not call Mrs. Peete as witness at the inquest. The deputy previously announced she would be called. Plans, Doan said, had been changed. Hilton immediately declared that he would demand that Mrs. Peete be called.

HARDING SAYS HE DOESN'T WANT U. S. MORTGAGED

WANTS AMERICA TO ENTER INTO NO COVENANT THAT SHE DOES NOT INTEND TO KEEP

RAYMOND CLAPPER
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Wichita, Kan., Oct. 9.—"America must not go into the league of nations on the theory that it can sneak out of its obligations," Senator Warren G. Harding declared in a speech at the wheat show at the Forum here today.

"What do you think of honest America going into a campaign on a theory that we can speak out of our promises?"

"I want our honorable America to keep her pledges to our own and to the people across the sea as well."

His sallies at the league covenant brought the same cheering response in this part of the wheat belt that he has met everywhere on his campaign trip.

It was here that President Wilson collapsed on his league tour a year ago.

Harding said his idea of an association of nations included an international court to decide such justifiable questions that codify international law and do all the practical things possible without surrender of American sovereignty.

"I haven't very much patience with any citizen who is more concerned about the people across the sea than he is about our own people," he said.

"I don't want a mortgaged republic. I don't want to mortgage manhood and womanhood in America, much less a mortgaged youth."

HOLD OFF BUYING COAL AT PRESENT HIGH PRICES

IS THE ADVICE OF THE AMERICAN
WHOLESALE COAL
ASSOCIATION

(United Press)

Washington, Oct. 9.—High bituminous coal prices are unjustified and consumers who have as much as a month's supply on hand should buy only for immediate use, the American Wholesale Coal association, advised today.

There is no danger of a bituminous coal shortage, the association said, and indicated by holding off buying consumers could cut the prices. The statement of the association was prepared by its executive committee.

HOOVER GIVES HIS VIEWS ON THE LEAGUE COVENANT

SAYS SOME ARTICLES MUST BE ABANDONED AND OTHERS
MODIFIED

(United Press)

Indianapolis, Oct. 9.—"My personal view is that some of the articles from the present treaty must be abandoned and some modified; but a great many parts of the present treaty are good, and interchain with the stability of the world," Herbert Hoover said in address today.

There has been much speculation as to Hoover's position as a friend of the league of nations and a supporter of Senator Harding, and his views of the latter's speeches.

Hoover made it clear he would hold the republicans and its candidate to their promise to "undertake the fundamental mission to put into being the principles of an organized association of nations for the preservation of peace."

He declared that the position of the party is as far as daylight from dark from the attitude of those who wish no league of nations or no association for these purposes.

"I believe that in keeping faith to use all that is good in the covenant, practical statesmanship requires this association must be built on a foundation of the existing treaty and including in it the great step forward in international justice now settled by Eihu Root."

INDIANA COMMISSION SLASHES COAL PRICES

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The Indiana fuel commission appointed by Governor J. P. Goodrich has issued a price list in which prices are slashed right and left.

The prices listed are for intrastate shipments alone and are much cheaper than the prices charged elsewhere in the United States.

Under the order, the state of Indiana is divided into three districts. In the cheapest district the maximum price of screenings f. o. b. the mine, is $2.80 a ton; mine run, $3 a ton; and lump coal, $3.25 a ton. In the other two districts the prices are a trifle higher, but none more than 80 cents a ton. The new scale cuts some of the old prices nearly in half.

Charges that coal brokers were largely responsible for the high price of fuel were made here today by District Attorney Charles Cline, who declared the cases would come before the federal grand jury and indictments against them would be asked. An investigation has disclosed, Mr. Cline said, that in some cases a ton of coal had passed through the hands of four or five brokers, each taking a profit of about 50 cents a ton. Charges were also made that competitive bidding at the mines among the brokers had sent the price up.

Coal mined in Franklin county, Illinois, Mr. Cline asserted, sells for $4.05 a ton f. o. b. at the mines. In Chicago yesterday it was being sold as high as $13 a ton.

 The first woman's rights convention met at Seneca Falls, N. Y. July 19, 1848, and lasted two days. The leader of the gathering was Lucretia Mott, the Quakeress, and her leading assistant was Elizabeth Cady Stanton. This date is regarded as the greatest anniversary of the woman's suffrage movement in America.

FATHER AND SONS

Appreciative Audience at Clara Lutheran Church Welcomes David Bjorling and Sons

David Bjorling and his three sons, Gasto age 6, Jussi age 7 and Oile age 10, were greeted by a large appreciative audience Wednesday evening at the Clara Lutheran church, where they gave a splendid concert.

It was nothing less than marvelous, the volume these three young boys could produce. Under the instruction of their father they have been taught perfect control of their voices.

Mr. Bjorling also sang several solos. His voice is rich and full and everyone was loud in his praise.

The numbers were rendered in three languages, Swedish, Norwegian and American.

Seems Like Decree of Fate.

After being in a number of the worst battles fought during the World war, where he successfully dodged bullets and all other death-dealing missiles to the extent of saving his life, although hit 22 times in a way to cause grievous wounds, Richard J. Foran, thirty-two years old, was instantly killed by lightning a few days ago while standing under a tree a short distance from his home near Paterson, N. J. The bolt marked his forehead with a scar, as well as his right thigh and right leg from the knee to the ankle; tore off the rim of his hat, both shoes and his trousers from the hip.

Foran served in the war with the Three Hundred and Ninth Machine Gun battalion and seemed to have led a charmed life. But when old Jupiter Fulminator hurled a bolt at him there was no escape. Fortune had deserted and his career was ended.

Mark Memorial Trees.

Regardless of how thoughtfully the trees have been selected and how thoroughly the planting has been done, there remains intelligent care to have them live and thrive, says the American Forestry association of Washington, which will register its memorial trees on its national honor roll. Many planters have been disappointed with the results of their work because they considered their job completed when the last shovelful of soil was placed around the tree.

In every period and in every society there exists an understanding of the meaning of life which represents the highest level to which the men of that society have attained—an understanding defining the highest good at which that society aims. FIRE PREVENTION DAY

Mayor F. E. Little in his proclamation has called attention to the need of citizens observing "Fire Prevention Day" on October 9.

Governor J. A. A. Burnquist began the whole state to observe the day.

"We hear much today of the necessity of additional production," said the governor. "We hear too little of the necessity of the prevention of waste. The annual fire losses of the United States due to preventable causes are estimated at more than $200,000,000. The loss of life and the injuries sustained through such carelessness are beyond calculation. The yearly per capita fire waste in our country is about six times that of Europe. The need of the exercise of greater precaution here cannot be too strongly emphasized."

The governor urges the observance of "Fire Prevention Day" in the schools through proper exercises for the education of the children as to the dangers of fire and the enormous losses occasioned by its negligent use and that on the day there be a general cleaning up by the removal of all debris and waste that constitute a fire menace, and in addition thereto that every effort possible be made to educate the public in assisting to avoid the enormous preventable fire waste of the state and nation.

LOOK AT YOUR CHIMNEY!

There is one phase of fire prevention extremely vital to Brainerd and any other Minnesota town which was in the path of the severe June wind-storm and other atmospheric disturbances, and that is the chimney on your house.

Go up on the roof and examine it. No doubt you will find bricks missing and in some cases a cracked or warped chimney. You are not using the chimney now, but if you wait until winter to test it out with a red hot stove or furnace you will undoubtedly find that your defective chimney has been a mere fire trap and that a few ounces of prevention today would have saved your home from fire peril in below zero weather.

A cracked or warped chimney lets the sparks and oftentimes flames pass out and sets fire to your roof.

Get busy on this Saturday, Oct. 9, "Fire Prevention Day".

HUNGER STRIKING FASHIONABLE

Hunger striking seems to be the popular thing just now in jail circles.

But the one in Ancona, Italy, was of short duration. The warden fixed up a platter of steaming hot macaroni garnished with cheese and held it up to the noses of the strikers.

That broke the strike and the crowd ate.

New England Colloquialism.

A colloquialism in frequent use, not only in rural communities, but in New England generally, is "at that." It is employed to express merit where none might be presumed, as "he's lazy, but a decent chap 'at that.'" "He's up and coming" is an expression familiar to every New Englander, and its meaning is synonymous with the rustic's, "head up and tail over the dasher."

"Tower of the Winds."

This is the water clock erected at Athens, Greece, in the second or first century before Christ. It is octagonal in plan, 42 feet high and 23 feet in diameter. Toward the top of each side it is sculptured with various symbols of the wind. Originally the structure was surmounted with a bronze Triton, which served as a weather vane.

So it seems.

Women jump at conclusions and frequently hit; men reason things out logically and usually miss.

AMUSEMENTS

At the New Park Again Tonight

That popular idol of the screen, William Farnum, was at the New Park theatre last night in his latest production, "The Orphan," a stirring story of the west, written by Clarence E. Mulford.

In "The Orphan" Mr. Farnum has one of the most powerful roles of his career, according to advance reports. He is cast as an outlaw hated and feared more violently by the cowpunchers than anyone known to the little town of Ford's Station. It is said that Mr. Farnum puts tremendous dash, vigor and fire into this powerful story of the days of bandits and Indians and stagecoach holdups.

Mr. Farnum appeared as The Orphan, a victim of misfortune and circumstances, who has been accused of committing numerous crimes, the worst of which were not of his doing. How he gains the friendship of the sheriff—who has gone on to capture him—and subsequently makes a new start in life after winning the love of a beautiful girl, is told in the development of a plot which, it is declared, never has been surpassed by any in which Farnum has figured on the screen.

REV. CHAS. F. DAVIS TO PREACH SUNDAY

Former Brainerd Pastor Has an Unusual Faculty in Remembering People

HOSTS OF FRIENDS IN THE CITY

Was Six Years Pastor of First Methodist Church in Brainerd and Then Went to Minneapolis

Rev. Charles Fox Davis who preaches at the First Methodist church Sunday is a most unusual man in his ability to remember people. He made hosts of friends while in Brainerd by being able to call all people he had met by their name even though much time had elapsed since his former meeting. He always portrayed a keen interest in people and was most sympathetic.

He was for six years pastor of the local church and served six years in the Minneapolis church to which he was appointed and is now serving his third appointment in that city having had an appointment there before coming to Brainerd.

He was also known as the "marrying parson." His personal popularity with young people brought them to him in the happy time of their lives. Even after leaving Brainerd young people followed him to Minneapolis to have him perform the wedding ceremony.

As he had a large following outside the church it is anticipated that he will have splendid congregations both morning and evening when he preaches.

London, Oct. 9.—Terence MacSwiney, hunger striking mayor of Cork, was being hailed throughout Britain today as "mystery man." This was the 55th day of his fast. Physicians and scientists were speculating on how he could live so long without food.

The MacSwiney bulletin said he had a good night, but was weaker this morning.

The condition of the hunger strikers at Cork, who have been without sustenance longer than MacSwiney, were said actually to be improved today.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Report of Mine Inspector August Swanson of Brainerd Gives Resume of Mining in Year

16 MINES WERE OPERATING

Rescue Station Soon to be Established—Total Tonnage Ore Shipped Over Two Million

The annual report of August Swanson, mine inspector of Crow Wing county, gives important statistics regarding work done on the Cuyuna iron range.

The table of mines shows sixteen operating and twenty-eight not operating, as against nineteen and twenty-five of a year ago. This naturally resulted in a smaller number of tons of ore marketed. A contributing cause of reduction in production was the difficulty in securing coal, a large part of which had to be shipped by rail all the way from the coal mines. A few of the iron mines also experienced some difficulty in getting enough men. Fatalities were six as against eleven a year ago, a reduction of 45 per cent.

It is with pleasure that Mine Inspector Swanson reports the fact that the Cuyuna range is in a fair way of getting a meeting of the superintendents for the purpose of discussing the matter, the work has been going on steadily and judging by the earnestness and vigor thus far shown by the superintendents, he is confident that another year will see the wonderful apparatus of mercy fully installed. It is to be built entirely by subscribed means, and at present, out of an estimated cost of $6,000, some $4,050 has been subscribed. The plans call for a building 15x30, containing two rooms, one for instruction and training in first aid, and the other to contain rescue apparatus which, with a man always in charge, will be in readiness on a moment's notice.

Sanitary and comfort provisions on the Cuyuna iron range are good and there is no labor trouble of any kind whatever, the best of relations existing between employers and employees.

During the year the mining inspector made 228 visits and inspections. The number of men employed underground was 952, on the surface 361, in open pit and stripping 293, with 40 men employed in shaft sinking and developing work.

The number of tons of iron ore shipped from underground mines for the year amounted to 1,310,567 and from open pits 748,450, making a total of 2,058,957 tons shipped.

There was removed during the year 1,927,720 yards of stripping. There were six fatal accidents underground, none on the surface.

The highest paid wages was steam shovel engineers in open pit and stripping who received an average rate of $11.56 per day. Common labor received in open pit and stripping an average of $5.37 per day, underground $5.55 and on surface $5.32 per day. Contract miners averaged per day $7.55 underground, while miners on company account made $5.56 per day.

The operating mines were the Kennedy, Meacham, Armour No. 1 and No. 2, Rowe, Ironton, Mahanomen, Pennington, Hill Crest, Croft, Feigh, Bonnie Bell, Merritt, Sagamore, Portsmouth and Morocco.

The underground mines and their production were the Kennedy 293,821 tons and Meacham 91,347 tons; Armour No. 2, 293, 955; Thompson 92,198; Rowe mine of the Pittsburg Steel Ore Co. 151,378; Ironton of the Cuyuna-Duluth Iron Co. 66,742; Croft of the Merrimac Mining Co. 97,187; Feigh of the Northwestern Improvement Co. 42,319; Merritt of the Merritt Development Co. 6,964; Bivanago Mining Co. Adams mine 595; Bonnie Belle of the Liberty Mining Co. 45,578; Sultana of the Cuyuna Mining Co. 19,339; Brainerd-Cuyuna of the Brainerd-Cuyuna Mining Co. 5,206; Arko of the Arko Mining Co. 2,944; Omaha of the Omaha Mining Co. 39,750.

The open pits and their production were Armour No. 1 of the Inland Steel Co. 123,912; North Pit of the same company 67,467; Pennington of the Pennington Mining Co. 104,234; Mahanomen of the Mahanomen Mining Co. 102,185; Hill Crest of the Hill Crest Mining Co. 173,603; Portsmouth of the Gordon Mining Co. 48,183; Sagamore of the John A. The X-Ray and Chiropractic

The Chiropractor spends month after month for three years perfecting the sense of touch in his fingers so that he may correctly ascertain the location of each spinal segment in the patient's back. Even with his adeptness at locating these misaligned or subluxated vertebrae he is sometimes baffled, and to prove conclusively to himself that he is absolutely correct in his findings, he resorts to the X-ray. By taking a radiographic picture of the patient's spine, he is not only enabled to actually see the exact conditions as they exist, but he is also able to show the patient that condition.

STAGE GETS INTO POLITICS

Here is your old friend Al Jolson, President of the Harding Solidity Theatrical League, thinking up a good one that will help our larding. Al usually gets a good hand.

HAROLD KNUTSON HAS MADE GOOD

Sixth District Congressman Makes Fine Record in National Legislature.

ASKS FOR RE-ELECTION

Has Done Much for Soldiers, Sailors, Marines and His Constituents in General—Some of His Accomplishments.

Congressman Harold Knutson has announced that he will not leave Washington while Congress is in session, even though the campaign is on in the Sixth district. In a recent letter to a friend in this city he said in part: "It will not be possible for me to leave Washington at this time, for there are a number of important measures pending in congress and I feel that my place is here until they have been disposed of. I have every confidence that the voters of the 6th District can be trusted to do the right thing when the time comes, and I will leave my political fortunes in their hands."

That is the sort of Congressman representing this district. In the stressful campaign of two years ago he refused to leave his post of duty to come back and look after his own political welfare. In the heat of battle he remained in Washington, faithfully attending to the duties of his office, and the result showed that his confidence in the good judgment of the people was well founded.

Harold Knutson made good in Congress from the start. He took his seat in the body on April 2, 1917. Early in his congressional career his colleagues recognized his capacity for hard work and he was made assistant whip of the Republican minority. When the Republicans gained control of the House as a result of the last election, Mr. Knutson was made majority whip, an honor never before held by one so young in point of service, and in that capacity he has been able to do much for the district. He is a member of three important committees, namely, Immigration and Naturalization, Pensions, and Insular Affairs, being second ranking member of the first two which makes him in line for an important chairmanship in the next Congress.

HAROLD KNUTSON

He is the author of a number of important bills and resolutions, among them being:

A resolution directing the Federal Trade Commission to investigate and report on profiteering and hoarding of sugar.

A resolution appropriating $250,000 to be spent by the Bureau of Chemistry, Department of Agriculture, to discover a suitable substitute for gasoline which, it is hoped, will result in the finding of a power fuel that will make it possible for those of small means to operate tractors and automobiles.

What He Has Done for the Farmer.

He took an active part in the passage of the bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase $64,000,000 worth of Farm Loan Bonds so as to provide money for the Farm Loan Banks with which to complete all applications pending for farm loans. As is well known, the constitutionality of the act establishing the Farm Loan system is being attacked by large Eastern financial interests, and until the U. S. supreme court passes upon the question next October, it will not be possible to sell Farm Loan bonds in the open market. The passage of the bill referred to will afford immediate relief to those who have made application for loans with which to build, buy necessary farm equipment, and liquidate outstanding obligations, and this will mean a great deal to the settlers of northern Minnesota.

Mr. Knutson took a leading part in the movement to repeal the "Daylight Savings" law, notwithstanding the opposition of the President, who vetoed the bill providing for its repeal. Mr. Knutson also voted to pass the bill over the President's veto.

For Soldiers, Sailors and Marines. Helped to secure passage of necessary legislation to allow discharged service men to retain their uniforms and other equipment.

He has taken an active part in the campaign to modernize court martial procedure in the Army, and as a result of the efforts put forth by himself and several other members of Congress, a subcommittee of the House has been named to revise the military code of the United States Army. It is expected and hoped that this will result in improving the condition of the men in the service and in reducing the sentences of those already convicted and imprisoned for minor offenses.

He voted for the Sweet Bill, which increased the compensation of disabled soldiers, sailors and marines, and liberalized the insurance features of the War Risk Insurance Act. Under the provisions of this act the compensation to disabled ex-service men was nearly trebled, and also increased the benefits to their dependents.

He has secured the adjustment of several thousand cases involving insurance, allotments, compensation, discharges, vocational training, bonus and travel pay. His office enjoys the distinction of not having lost a single discharge certificate of the many hundreds handled by him; and so we might go on.

What He Has Done for Northern Minnesota.

Now, let us get nearer home. Ask anyone in Bemidji or Beltrami County what he has done for this section and see what they say. No matter ever called to his attention has proven too small or trivial to command his best attention. He has worked hard for Northern Minnesota. In conjunction with Congressman Halvor Steenerson, he has labored to secure legislation necessary for the deepening and straightening of Red Lake River, which will reclaim several hundred thousand acres of fertile agricultural land tributary to Bemidji, and it is understood that the Flood Control Committee of the House has reported this measure out favorably. This is a piece of legislation earnestly desired by the people of Beltrami and adjoining counties.

Until Mr. Knutson was sent to congress it seemed impossible to get the Engineers of the War Department to regulate the water levels in the Federal reservoirs at the headwaters of the Mississippi in the interest of agriculture. Prior to 1917, surplus waters were run off without regard to interests of the farmers living in the territory adjacent to the various reservoirs, especially Leech Lake, but a short time after getting to Washington, Mr. Knutson succeeded in changing that policy.

Congressman Knutson has succeeded in securing an appropriation of $105,000 for construction of a highway across the Cass Lake Forest, so that by next fall there will be a good road from Bemidji to Duluth. It is expected that work on this project will be commenced in the very near future.

When Mr. Knutson first became a candidate for congress, it was urged against him that, coming from one of the best developed and richest counties in the state (Stearns), which is situated in the southern end of the district, he would not understand the needs of the more northern and undeveloped counties. He has proven that he does understand the needs of this section, and is always ready to give his sympathetic assistance to every movement looking to the development of Northern Minnesota. There are a number of rural routes and postoffices in this section which he has assisted in establishing, and the homesteader has in him a good and faithful friend—Bemidji Sentinel.

Congressman Harold Knutson has made good. Why change?

In the three years that Harold Knutson has been a member of Congress he has risen to a position of power in the House. Why change?

One good term deserves another. Harold Knutson has made good in Congress and deserves another term.

Why change a tried and true Congressman for an untried man whom few know? Vote for Harold Knutson. His good work deserves recognition.

Let us keep our faithful servants in office. Harold Knutson has been a faithful servant and is always on the job. Why change?

JACOBSON HAS AIDED FARMER

Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner Saves Millions for Grain Growers by Devotion to Their Interests.

O. P. B. JACOBSON.

O. P. B. Jacobson, of Fergus Falls, has been a member of the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission for more than six years. Previous to his appointment to that body, he had been a member of the State Board of Grain Appeals, in which capacity he gained that intimate knowledge of grading grain and of the commercial requirements of the grain trade generally, which has made him such a useful public official. His services to the agricultural and industrial interests of the state have been conspicuous and invaluable, and he is destined to achieve still greater results.

Mr. Jacobson was born in Norway, and received his education in city schools. Like a true Norseman, he went to sea, and after serving before the mast, he took up the study of navigation. Upon completing the course at Christiania he again followed a seafaring life. The Great West attracted him, and he followed the call, locating in 1884 at Fergus Falls, which has since been his home. Here he was engaged in various mercantile affairs, and also in journalism, editing for some years, the Fergus Falls Ugeblad.

Looks Out for Farmer.

As a member of the Railroad and Warehouse Commission, Mr. Jacobson has been particularly zealous in guarding the interests of the farmers. He has been a consistent opponent of the federal system of grading grain, and it has been largely through his efforts that the extremely technical standards promulgated by the federal department of agriculture have been modified to comply more nearly to the commercial demands. He is the author of a bill now before Congress, and which will provide that rules and standards for grading grain, shall be prepared by a board of practical grain men, each state producing 100,000,000 or more, bushels of grain, to be represented on such a board. He also is the author of another bill before Congress, designed to compel railroads having tide-water terminals, to provide ample facilities for storing and handling all grain and grain products arriving at such terminals. It is his contention that the passage and enforcement of such a measure virtually will prevent congestion of freight cars upon the Atlantic seaboard, and which company is supposed to be due to "car famine."

Active in Getting Coal. Mr. Jacobson has been notably active of late in obtaining orders from the Interstate Commerce Commission, directing the movement of 4,000 cars of coal to the lower lake ports for transshipment to Duluth and the return of Northwestern railroads of all cars owned by them but used by eastern and southern railroads. Without the return of such cars, it will be impossible to move the immense grain crops of the Northwest, upon which the prosperity of this section of the country so largely depends.

IRISH POLICE FIRE CITY HALL IN CITY OF CORK

Cork, Oct. 9.—A large body of police surrounded the city hall here early today firing rifles and throwing bombs into the windows. They prevented firemen from approaching the building until it was ablaze.

This was believed to be in reprisal for shooting of soldiers in a clash with civilians yesterday. The firemen later controlled the flames.

Earthquake Reported at Vera Cruz, Mex.

Mexico City, Oct. 9.—An earthquake in the state of Vera Cruz yesterday rocked the country for miles, but damaged none of the villages, according to reports received here. Communication with the effected district was interrupted.

COX SPEAKING IN INDIANA

IS THROWING FIRE AT EX-PRESIDENT TAFT SEEKING TO CAUSE DISSENTION

H. W. WALKER
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
Enroute with Governor J. M. Cox to Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 9.—Invading "doubtful Indiana" for the third time during his stumping campaign Gov. Cox opened the day with one of the old chief barn storms in this half of the state today by denying Senator Harding's statement at Des Moines that President Wilson insisted on the treaty being ratified without "dotting an 'i' or crossing a 't'".

The president accepted the five reservations of Senator Hitchcock as written, Cox said, "but they were voted down by the senatorial oligarchy despite the fact they met every objection against the league."

"I affirm without fear of contradiction that anyone who said the president never sought or heeded advice of the senate is ignorant of history or is grossly insincere."

Cox has been throwing sharp fire at former President Taft in an apparent effort to force the republican pro-leaguers to break with their candidate. Cox will speak at Terre Haute tonight following about half a day of rear platform speeches.

The Motor Car Price Situation

A Message From President

J. Dallas Dort
DORT MOTOR COMPANY

"The price of the Dort car is reasonable and fair; the total net advance in list within a period of 2 years having been but 17 per cent. against advances ranging from 19 per cent. to 45 per cent. in the list of other leading makes.

Therefore there will be no price reduction by this company.

"There has been as yet no break in material or labor cost that would warrant any price reduction in the Dort car.

"On the contrary, materials have been purchased by us, and by all motor car manufacturers, for 1921 production, at a very considerable advance as a whole over 1920 material costs.

"Therefore, unless those purchase contracts are treated by the purchaser as scraps of paper or the seller voluntarily revises contract prices downward, there can be no justification for any motor car manufacturer to reduce prices unless he has been profiteering, which means that he has been receiving excessive profits.

"If there be such manufacturers, this is the most opportune time for them properly to adjust prices to the sound values of their product."

The present prices of current Dort models are guaranteed against reduction.
